Decision made

| | |
|--|--|
| Cabinet Members making the decision | Councillor Nick Denys, Cabinet Member for Planning, Housing & Property |
| Decision | Agreed The Cabinet Member authorised the grant of an extension for the relevant period of 90 years to the existing leasehold interest as outlined in this report in accordance with the provisions of the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993. |
| Reason for decision | The Cabinet Members made this decision on the basis that, once a formal Notice was served under the Leasehold Reform, Housing and Urban Development Act 1993, the Council was required to comply with the Act's provisions and timescales, to negotiate the premium for a 90-year lease extension with the leaseholder following service of a Counter Notice, and, where agreement could not be reached, for the premium to be determined by a tribunal. |
| Alternative options considered and rejected | As detailed in the confidential report. |
